UConn Professor of Geology, Hartford Courant journalist, and author of Stone by Stone: The Magnificent History in New England's Stone Walls and
Beyond Walden: The Hidden History of America's Kettle Lakes and Ponds

GOSA Instant! News will support the mission and purpose of the Groton Open Space Association by publishing electronic newsletters that will inform the public of past, present and future GOSA activities and threats to the health of open space. GOSA News will also serve as a link to the GOSA website <http://gosaonline.org/> for additional information and as a link to other key sites. Our mission is to inform and inspire the public to become actively involved. We welcome letters to the editor. Letters should be sent with the writer's name, address and daytime phone number via e-mail to: gosamail@gmail.com.

GOSA Mission and Purpose

To work to promote conservation, environmental preservation, open space and recreational areas in Southeastern Connecticut. To educate the public about the value of open space, conservation and environmental preservation. To enlist public support and funding to promote, acquire or maintain open space for public use, alone or in cooperation with local, state or federal agencies, or with other nonprofit organizations.
